

MZAZA

FREE WORLD MUSIC WORKSHOPS Friday 1 December

Award-winning world music six-piece, MZAZA facilitates fun workshops for all ages and musical abilities. You will learn a Turkish-Sephardic song sung in Ladino (a mix of old Spanish and Hebrew), and you'll be invited to perform the song with the band during our evening concert.

Location: Ipswich Civic Centre, 50 Nicholas St, Ipswich
Workshop time: 6.00 pm – 6.50 pm
Concert: 8pm (doors 7.00 pm)

Register here for the Free World Music Workshop before Thursday 30 November

WORLD SINGING WORKSHOP

Embark on a journey through the world of Sephardic music and join Pauline Maudy and Ricardo Bona for an uplifting vocal workshop aimed at introducing you to the rich melodic world of Jewish Spanish music traditions and getting you singing an ancient language in harmony! This workshop is accessible to all levels.

MZAZA INSTRUMENTAL WORKSHOP

Join Greta (violin), John (guitar), Goran (double-bass) and Malindi (darabuka & cajon) to learn a traditional Sephardic tune with unique rhythms and ornaments. Bring your strummed, bowed, blown or percussive instrument of choice. Learn by ear or with the guitar tabs/ sheet music we provide.

Workshops are free for MZAZA concert ticket-holders.
